A NEW NOVEL OF EXTRAORDINARY INTEREST.
D. APPLETON & CO.,
Nos. 443 and 445 BROADWAY,
HAVE JUST PUBLISHED

LIGHT:
A NOVEL.BY HELEN MONET.
1 vol. 12mo, cloth, $1.25.

"This is a very cleverly written story, abounding in striking incidents and spirited dialogue. The interest of the story is well sustained, and the characters are well drawn. The interest of the book is increased by the author's own personal popularity.—[Missouri Republican.]

The characters are drawn with grace and power, and the style is simple, clear and pleasant to read. The moral tone of the tale is high, and the lesson inculcated worth the attention of those who read new novels for the sake of the story.—Evening World.—Above property is now in demand.

—It is a pleasant novel, graphic and readable—a story of modern life, told in very good style.

—The author has evidently seen much of the world to its various shores, and presents a decided originality in society as we find it especially in the outer cities of America.

—The author is well known, and her name attracts a certain number of readers.

—Consistency, language is lovely, and enough to excite the heart of the most credulous reader, and the good purpose will be claimed the best power in writing.

—Helen Monet has indeed won her place in writing, from his initial views on every successive publication for her.

THE LIFE OF VICTOR HUGO. TOLD BY A WITNESS (MADAME HUGO).

PUBLISHED TO-MORROW.

Elegant octavo, cloth bound. Price $1.50.

This magnificent work which has just appeared in Paris, and a translation of which is now offered to the American public, is, to all intents and purposes, an Autobiography. For its equivocal title page is but a mask to conceal the real author—Victor Hugo himself—the creator of that masterpiece, "Les Misérables."

THE LIFE OF VICTOR HUGO. The story of such a life as M. Victor Hugo, told by a witness, can hardly fail to be a tale which will make Europe sit up and listen.—[London Advertiser]. "One of the most interesting volumes that has issued from the French Press since Hugo signed his avis à la mort to the prophéties de Les Misérables."—[Paris Correspondent].—Charming in freshness, dramatic in incident, abundant in detail, graphic in description, and lively in anecdote, we have read the book before us with unflagging interest.—[London Literary Times].

THE LIFE OF VICTOR HUGO. One of the most delightful of all Biographies, and one which every reader of "Les Misérables" will devour with avidity; indeed the Great Romance itself is a part of the life of Victor Hugo, and cannot be fully understood without this its companion.

IN PARIS.

THE LIFE OF CHRIST. Translated from the French of Jesus.

THE LAST DAY OF A CONDEMNED MAN. Translated from the French of Victor Hugo.
